Democratic Leaders Call for Conference to Be Held This Morning. ABSENCE OF ILL-FEELING

Second Day's Debate Characterized by Lack of Hostile Criticism.

Washington, November 25.—The currency situation took an unexpected turn in the Senate to-day, when Democratic leaders decided to call a party conference at once to attempt to unite party members behind a bill that would have the support of President Wilson.

The conference will begin at 11 o'clock to-morrow. It was said by leaders to-night that its conclusions would not be binding, but an agreement was confidently predicted upon vital features and amendments of the pending bill.

The second day's debate upon the measure was notable for the apparent absence of ill-feeling between the advocates of the different currency plans represented by the several Democratic bills. Senator Hitchcock held the Senate for more than an hour with his speech in support of the bill agreed upon by the conference.
